SCHOOL NON-DISCRIMINATION POLICY: Mercer Law School has long refrained from discriminating on the basis of race, color, religion, national origin, sex, age, handicap or disability, or sexual orientation. The policy of the Association of American Law Schools, required of all AALS-accredited law schools, reinforces our long-standing practice. A new AALS requirement, that we make our placement services available only to employers who assure us that they are willing to abide by this non-discrimination policy, was adopted by the Mercer Law Faculty on November 10, 1993. Accordingly, Mercer Law School's placement services are expressly limited to employers willing to have their request for placement services, including posting notices, considered as an assurance of the employer's agreement to consider Mercer students without discrimination on the stated bases. In addition, the Law School requests that employers using our placement services also not discriminate on the basis of any other factor unrelated to an individual's capacity to perform lawyering tasks.
