LAW 206 EVIDENCE (3HRS) | Prof. Painter-Thorne | TR 6:30-9:30 pm
(2L Required Course) Basic trial evidence course using the Federal rules of Evidence. Topics include relevance, opinion evidence, expert testimony, relevant but inadmissible evidence, real and documentary evidence, character evidence, and hearsay.

LAW 302 LAW OF LAWYERING (3HRS) | Prof. Hricik, MW 6:40-9:40 pm
(2L or 3L Required Course) This course is primarily concerned with the ethical and legal regulation of the legal profession covering such topics as conflicts of interests, confidentiality, attorney-client privilege, malpractice, lawyer-client decision-making, and other similar issues.
Note: Substantial portions of Prof. Hricik’s course will be offered asynchronously (he will communicate the live portions of the above schedule to his class).

LAW 154 STATUTORY LAW & ANALYSIS (2HRS) | Prof. Roudil | MW 4:30-6:30 pm
(2L Required Course) This course will cover the fundamental skills involved in reading, understanding, and applying statutory language to the resolution of a legal issue; it will also cover the parts of a statute, the interrelationship between statutes and other sources of law, and the methods of reading and interpreting statutes.

LAW 481 INTERNATIONAL LAW (3HRS) | Prof. Ritchie (Elective)
This course is an introduction to public international law and will discuss peaceful settlements of disputes, international agreements in international and domestic law, the evolving law of the sea, human rights, and international attempts at controlling the use of armed force.
Note: Synchronous distance-learning course, which will be scheduled later according to student interest.

LAW 602 SUMMER EXTERNSHIP (2 OR 3 HRS) | Prof. Floyd & Dean Gerwig-Moore (Experiential)
120 hours of work for 2 credit hours
180 hours of work for 3 credit hours
Students work in an approved public interest or government law office under the supervision of a faculty member. Students will be required to attend 2 two-hour class sessions, contribute to an online discussion board, and turn in weekly journals and timesheets.
Note: Summer Externship students to be randomly divided between Sarah Gerwig-Moore and Tim Floyd.

LAW 1019.01 SURVEY OF ADMIRALTY LAW (3 HRS) | Prof. McRae (Elective)
This course covers authorities and doctrines of US Maritime Law. Students will learn the ranges of common law and statutory law causes of action that apply to admiralty jurisdiction including the carriage of goods and passengers, employment of maritime personnel, the chartering, mortgaging and insuring of vessels, personal injury claims, maritime personnel, and the navigation of ships.
Note: synchronous distance-learning course, which will be scheduled later according to student interest

BANKRUPTCY (3 HRS) | Prof. Cino (iLaw course) (Elective)
This course studies the federal bankruptcy system as applied to individuals, families, small businesses, and large corporations. It is divided into a consumer bankruptcy section and business bankruptcy section.
Note: Asynchronous distance-learning courses offered through iLaw.

INSURANCE LAW (3 HRS) | Prof. Hylton (iLaw course) (Elective)
This course is an introduction to the basic principles governing the creation, sale and enforcement of the most common forms of insurance in the U.S. These principles include personal liability, professional liability, commercial general liability, homeowners, automobile, life and casualty, and health.
Note: Asynchronous distance-learning courses offered through iLaw.

Apply Now
Registration Deadline: April 17