EXPERIENTIAL LEARNING COURSES (CURRENT)

As a requirement for graduation, each student must satisfactorily complete one or more experiential courses totaling at least six (6) credit hours. An experiential course is primarily experiential in nature and (i) integrates doctrine, theory, skills, and legal ethics and engages students in performance of one or more of the professional skills identified in ABA Standard 302; (ii) develops the concepts underlying the professional skills being taught; (iii) provides multiple opportunities for performance; and (iv) provides opportunities for self-evaluation. Experiential courses include simulation courses, law clinics and field placement.

Simulation Courses

Accounting for Lawyers (2 credits)
Advanced Legal Research (2 credits)
Advanced Litigation Drafting* (2 credits)
Advanced Trial Advocacy (2 credits)
Appellate Practice & Procedure* (2 credits)
Business Drafting* (2 credits)
Case Settlement Negotiation (2 credits)
Client Counseling II (2 credits)
Contract Drafting* (2 credits)
Federal Tax Procedure (2 credits)
Introduction to Counseling (1 credit)
Introduction to Dispute Resolution (1 credit)
Legal Letters* (2 credits)
Managing Law Practice (2 credits)
Post-Conviction Practice & Remedies*
Problems in Trial Evidence (2 credits)
Summary Judgment Practice* (2 credits)
Trial Practice (3 credits)

Law Clinics

Asylum and Human Rights Clinic*
Domestic Violence Clinic (4 credits-taken twice) **
Habeas Project* (4 credits-usually taken twice)
Low Income Tax Clinic (3-4 credits)

Field Placements/Externships

Civics Field Placement II
Consumer Bankruptcy Externship (Part I/II) (3-4 credits)
Corporate Counsel Externship I (3-12 credits)
Corporate Counsel Externship II (2-12 credits)
Externship I (3-12 credits)
Externship II (2-12 credits)
Judicial Externship (3-4 credits)
Prosecutorial Externship (3-4 credits)
Public Defender Externship (5-12 credits)
Summer Externship (2-3 credits)

*May meet experiential learning or advanced writing requirement, not both.
 Experiential credit in Spring semester. Adv Writing credit in Fall semester.

ADVANCED WRITING COURSES

Advanced Litigation Drafting*
Agricultural Law Seminar*
Appellate Practice & Procedure*
Asylum and Human Rights Clinic*
Business Drafting*
Civics Field Placement I
Contract Drafting*
Corporate Issues Seminar
Criminal Law & Procedure Seminar
Domestic Violence Clinic
Environmental Law Seminar
Federal Tax Policy Seminar
Great Trials Seminar
Habeas Project*
Journal of Southern Legal History
Independent Research & Writing~
Introduction to Disaster Law Seminar
Law & Literature Seminar
Law Review
Lawyers as Leaders Seminar
Legal Ethics Seminar
Legal History Seminar
Legal Letters*
Human Rights Seminar (w/ Oxford Consortium for Human Rights) (Formerly Oxford Human Rights)
Police Practices Seminar
Post-Conviction Practice & Remedies*
Poverty and the Law Seminar
Religion Clauses of the First Amendment Seminar
Second Amendment Seminar
Selected Topics in Modern Family Law Seminar
Sexuality and the Law Seminar
Summary Judgement Practice*
Tort Law Seminar
Transportation Law & Politics Seminar

*May meet experiential learning or advanced writing requirement, not both.
~Independent Research form must indicate that it will count for Advanced Writing Requirement. The student must complete an individually authored work of rigorous intellectual effort under the active and regular supervision of a full-time faculty member.
Adv Writing credit will be given in Fall semester. Experiential credit will be given in Spring semester.

DRAFTING COURSES FOR LEGAL WRITING CERTIFICATE PROGRAM

The following courses will satisfy the Drafting requirement for the Legal Writing Certificate.

Advanced Litigation Drafting
Advanced Persuasive Writing
Appellate Practice and Procedure
Asylum & Human Rights Clinic
Business Drafting
Contract Drafting
Habeas Project
Legal Letters
Summary Judgment Practice

Revised: 10.16.2026